The image shows a musical score for the song "The Rose Tree". It consists of two staves. The top staff is a treble clef staff with a melody line. The bottom staff is a guitar accompaniment staff, showing chords and fingerings. The chords are written as numbers 0, 2, and 3, indicating the frets for the strings. The fingerings are indicated by numbers 1, 2, and 3. The melody is written in a simple, folk-like style, with a mix of eighth and quarter notes. The guitar accompaniment is a simple chordal accompaniment, using a mix of open strings and fretted notes.

The musical score is written for guitar, featuring two systems. The first system covers measures 1 through 6, and the second system covers measures 7 through 12. The key signature has three sharps (F#, C#, G#), and the time signature is 4/4. Chord symbols are placed above the staff: C#/G# at the beginning, D/A at measure 5, and F#m at measure 9. The lyrics "you don't care about us," are aligned under the vocal melody. The guitar part includes various techniques such as power chords, barre, and bends. A tablature section at the bottom provides fret numbers for each string.
